Day 4-Goa-Dodhsagar-Goa

After breakfast today we are going to Goa's most popular water fall called Dudhsagar Falls is a four-tiered waterfall located on the Mandovi River in the Indian state of Goa. It is 60 km from Panaji by road and is located on the Belgaum–Vasco Da Gama rail route about 46 km east of Madgaon and 80 km south of Belgaum.Dudhsagar Waterfall is a famous natural attraction located in Goa, India. It is one of the tallest waterfalls in India and is surrounded by lush greenery, making it a picturesque sight for visitors. The name "Doodhsagar" translates to "sea of milk," as the waterfall's white water resembles milk cascading down the rocks. Visiting the waterfall usually involves a trek through the Bhagwan Mahavir Wildlife Sanctuary, adding an adventurous element to the experience. Many tourists enjoy bathing in the cool waters and capturing the scenic beauty through photography. As for reviews, Dudhsagar Waterfall is generally well-regarded by visitors for its stunning views and serene environment. However, the experience may vary depending on the time of year and weather conditions, so it's essential to plan your trip accordingly. Some visitors suggest avoiding peak tourist seasons to enjoy a more tranquil visit. Overall, Dudhsagar Waterfall is a must-visit destination for nature lovers and adventure enthusiasts looking to explore the natural beauty of Goa. After full day trip return back to hotel/Resort.
